Huge Thank You To Our AHR/TRS Team For A Successful 2017!

Jannie Scott, Clinical Director, states she is very proud of the many accomplishments of our AHR/TRS Team in 2017.

Just a few of the accomplishments include:

A successful TRS Biennial Audit in May!

TRS became an adoption agency in October!

TRS Together Facing The Challenge (TFC System Model of Care) was implemented in each of our local branches!

Ongoing successful partnerships, with our local MCOs, assisting both AHR & TRS!

Jannie said she is so pleased to have our team approach, to serving people with excellence. We look forward to 2018, with a continuing, non-stop, commitment to those we serve.

Jannie congratulates our team on a job well done!

AHR/TRS Christmas Parties!

The 2017 Christmas parties were a huge success this year! Here is a brief overview of the fun that took place!

Asheboro Overlook Group Home – A Christmas celebration took place on December 14th at the Overlook Group Home. Lots of fun festivities took place!

Clinton - The IDD Christmas Party took place Dec. 15th. Persons served & staff received gifts; refreshments were served. The Christmas Party for foster parents & children was held Dec. 18th at the Wallace skating ring. Gifts were given to the foster children & pizza was provided for everyone.

Lumberton - The Lumberton Office had an IDD Christmas Celebration Dec. 15th. The office was decorated; gifts were exchanged. All enjoyed Christmas games and music. Last but not least, Christmas food was enjoyed by both persons served & staff!

New Bern – A Christmas party was on Dec. 2nd at Galaxy Sports for foster parents and children. It was reported, “Everyone had a great time!!”

Raleigh Foster Care - Touchstone Raven Ridge Branch held its Christmas Skating Party for foster parents and children at United Skates of America on Dec. 9th; pizza & cake were part of the celebration!

Raleigh Group Homes and IDD Periodic – The Christmas Party celebrations took place on Dec. 15th at the Raven Ridge Office & also at Milton’s Pizza on Dec. 19th. Lots of fun festivities took place with persons served & staff members!

Wilmington – The Foster Family Christmas was held Dec. 1st at Lifepoint Church. A baked spaghetti dinner was served. Santa was there to pass out individual gifts for the children. Lifepoint supplied all the foster children’s requests via an Angel Tree at their church. Gift basket raffles were provided for the foster parents.
