2017 Biennial TRS Audit Successfully Completed

Jannie Scott, Clinical Director, along with the Audit Team successfully completed the 2017 Biennial Audit conducted by the Black Mountain Office of NC DHHS (May 3rd & 4th). Heather West, Licensing Consultant, announced Touchstone Residential Services will receive a two year license certification in May. The Audit Team, comprised of each member of our branch offices, worked meticulously to prepare for this review. Congratulations on a job well done!

Touchstone Residential Services & Advanced Health Resources 2017 Cultural Diversity Week

An important emphasis for Touchstone Residential Services & Advanced Health Resources is to participate in our annual Cultural Diversity Week. The week of March 14th marked this year's time of celebration. At TRS & AHR, we recognize Diversity encompasses the human desire to contribute and succeed, and is not limited to, or does not exclude, members of any group.

Special Recognition

Touchstone Residential Services is happy to recognize our community partners in our mission to support persons receiving foster care services. TRS recognizes Bojangles' as an excellent community partner. Bojangles' has supported our work, especially as we prepare for Foster Parent Appreciation Day, at all of our TRS Branch Offices. We thank Bojangles' for their generous support of our work; to provide a safe haven for the foster children we serve: 'Together We Make A Family'.

Our staff members conducted a number of culturally diverse activities. Some of those included: the Origin of Names, Language, Background, Personality, Various Foods. Games were conducted which equaled fun and sharing of individual observations, relating to cultural diversity.

Community Outreach

TRS Wilmington was present during the recent Spring Festival in Burgaw, N.C. Our outreach to the community, with our message, ‘Together We Make A Family’ was vividly presented by Michael Perry, Licensing Coordinator. Pictured below is Michael’s daughter, Henley.
